

WHY DO WE BRUISE?

Bruising happens because of an injury to the vessels under the skin. Some blood leaks into the tissues when we injure ourselves. The bruise usually starts as blue or purple, and lightens with time, turning green and yellow before finally disappearing.

Disney
BE HEALTHY
BE ACTIVE