Risks of Investing in the Fund

Past returns are not a prediction or guarantee of future returns. The value of shares in the Fund may go down as well as up. An investment in the Fund involves the risk of loss, including the loss of the entire amount invested.

This factsheet is a marketing communication and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the more complete information contained in the Fund's Key Information Document (KID) / Key Investor Information Document (KIID) and Prospectus. Information on the Fund's Risk and Reward Profile is set out in the KID / KIID. Further information on the risks faced by investors in the Fund is included in "Risk Factors" in the Prospectus. The Prospectus, KID / KIID and the Fund supplement are available on request or at www.fundinfo.com. You should refer to the detail in them before taking any investment decision. The information provided in this factsheet does not disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of investing in the Fund. You should refer to the risk disclosures provided to you by your advisor or other intermediary. An investment in the Fund may not be suitable for all investors.

The principal risks of investing in the Fund are:

- The risk of loss of value arising where a bond issuer cannot pay interest or repay the amount invested when due. There is an additional risk in investing in bonds issued by governments because there may be difficulties in suing a government or country where it does not pay interest or repay the amount invested when due.
- The risk that a bond cannot be sold easily, quickly or at a good price. This risk may be higher where the Fund invests in bonds where the interest and amount invested in these bonds is adjusted to compensate for the impact of inflation or where a bond is issued by the government of an emerging market country.
- The risk of loss, bankruptcy or nationalization of any sub-custodian, registration agent or broker, or where ownership records are not maintained or respected.
- The risk of loss as a result of changes in currency exchange rates because the Fund invests in bonds and currencies other than the Class Currency of this Share Class. This Share Class will not seek to reduce this risk through currency hedging.

The Fund can invest in bonds (which may include inflation linked bonds) issued by governments, government agencies and supra-national agencies (such as the World Bank), irrespective of whether such bonds are included in the benchmark. The Fund will tend to purchase bonds with characteristics similar to those in the benchmark however, the investment strategy can lead to significant deviation from the benchmark in terms of country and currency weightings and duration, which can cause the return of the Fund to differ significantly from that of the benchmark. The Fund can invest in currencies using contracts on the spot and forward market, such as forward currency contracts (contracts to buy or sell a currency at a specified future time at an agreed price).
