In addition to these core holdings, the fund makes use of tactical stock selection to capitalise on short-term market mispricing and corporate action opportunities.

INVESTMENT POLICY

The policy is to invest in JSE listed Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs") or listed property companies. The investment manager will also be allowed to invest in financial instruments and cash as allowed by the act from time to time in order to achieve its investment objective. Furthermore, and as legislation permits, the manager shall be permitted to invest in offshore listed property investments on behalf of the Sesfikile BCI Property Fund.

WHY CHOOSE THIS FUND

The fund offers active best of breed management within a sector that offers income and capital growth over time:

- All shares are subject to rigorous, in-depth research;
- While ultimate portfolio construction adheres to Sesfikile's unique "Four D" approach:

 - Getting stuck in the detail
 - Understanding the broader drivers of property investment
 - Taking views on corporate action deals and finding the hidden potential in the sector.
- Through extensive experience in the listed property sector, we believe our team has the ability to identify the key differentiators to performance and ultimately the factors that impact total returns for clients. Importantly, given our commitment to capping the total size of assets under management we will remain nimble enough to execute on investment ideas effectively over the medium to long term.

MARKET REVIEW

Global uncertainty paved the way for the JSE's precious metals counters to take the lead, propelling South African equities (FTSE/JSE All Share Index, or "ALSI") to rise by 3.55% in March, closing the first quarter up 5.94%. The risk-off sentiment in the listed property sector persisted, with the FTSE/JSE All Property Index ("ALPI") retreating a further 1.54% month-on-month (MoM) and ending the first quarter down 4.25%. Meanwhile, bonds (FTSE/JSE All Bond Index, or "ALBI") posted a modest gain, rising 20bps MoM and 70bps for the quarter. The 10-year government bond closed 9bps higher at 10.62% for the month.

In March, the South African Reserve Bank held the repo rate steady at 7.5%, despite core inflation easing to 3.4% YoY—near the lower end of its target range. The rand strengthened by 2% MoM, aided by broad-based US dollar weakness, stable bond yields, and firming commodity prices. A surge in gold (+9.3% MoM) and PGM prices, spurred by escalating global trade tensions and safe-haven demand, drove mining stocks higher, with the resource sector gaining an impressive 19.5% MoM and lifting the JSE to new record highs. However, industrials and financials lagged, while property stocks declined. Investor sentiment remained cautious amid tariff hikes and rising concerns over Trump's unpredictable trade policies, inflationary risks, and broader geopolitical instability – factors that collectively drove a global flight to safety.

Despite improving fundamentals and operational performance evident during the March results season, the property sector still posted a monthly decline of -1.54%. Most counters reported positive distribution growth and either maintained or upgraded forward guidance, reinforcing the narrative of operational recovery within the sector. The March JSE ALPI Index rebalance introduced dual-listed UK REITs – Supermarket Income REIT PLC and Assura PLC – which gained 12.37% and 19.78% respectively during the month.

MAS PLC declined 19% MoM in March, as strong earnings were overshadowed by continued complications in unwinding its relationship with developer PKF. Hammerson fell 8.1% during the month, with its share price down 6% on results day due to weaker earnings and soft tenant sales, despite balance sheet improvements. SA Corporate Real Estate dropped 7.6% as solid results and progress in disposing of non-core residential assets failed to lift sentiment, even with the anticipated easing of balance sheet pressures following the long-awaited establishment of their unlisted residential fund.

Looking ahead, we remain constructive into 2025, with a steadily improving earnings growth outlook and healthy balance sheets supporting the potential for renewed acquisitive activity after years of subdued deal flow. However, we remain cautious about the impact of Trump's policy decisions on global inflation and emerging markets and have adjusted our bond yield forecasts accordingly. While overall returns may be more modest than in 2024, low double-digit total returns remain achievable.
